

A MIRACLE OF HUZUR TAAJUSH SHARI'AH

As we reached Faridpur (a village in India), Hazrat (Taaajush Shar'iah) told us to stop the car as he needed to attend the call of nature and requested us to find a place that had water facilities. We intended to stop in many places - we found a residential area which had Masaajid and water facilities - hence we wished to stop. However Hazrat still told us to continue so we obliged. Whenever we desired to stop Hazrat declined and told us to continue.

After a long drive we went far and reached a remote village where there were no Masaajid to be seen, rather from the apparent it seemed as though it was a Hindu village. Hazrat told us to stop here, in fact, he told us not to stop and turn right instead. We continued through the alleyways, and eventually reached a weak structured house made from soil. Taaajush Shar'iah ordered us to stop there and so we did. We were informed that a Muslim dwells in this house. There was nothing written, no boards, no names and no wall to show that this was a house inhabited by a Muslim. Most of the houses belonged to Hindus, only a handful were possessed by Muslims (in the whole village) and this was one of them! Hazrat stepped out of the car and told us to gain permission from the household to enter.

(After obtaining permission) Hazrat entered - there was an elderly woman (and presumably there was a child but he was nowhere to be seen). We informed the elderly woman that this is an Aalim (scholar) from Bareilly and he needs to attend the call of nature, thereafter, Hazrat proceeded. The woman came and proclaimed, "Who is this Aalim, there are so many Ulema and people walking behind him - I have seen many scholars walking alone, but what is the name of this Aalim that such a vast number of people and cars follow behind him?"

Someone proclaimed "This is Azhari Miyan, this is Taaajush Shar'iah, this is (Mufti) Akhtar Raza Khan" The elderly woman then exclaimed, "Is this Azhari Miyan, my Pir (spiritual guide), has he come to my house? Oh people, is this really Azhari Miyan?" She was told that yes this is Azhari Miyan. The elderly woman then proclaimed "I swear by Allah, I became a mureed 20 years ago, and since then I have been thinking and praying that before I die, oh (my) Pir show me your face (at least) once! And (now) my peer has come here!" After a little while Hazrat returned and requested for water to perform wudhu (ablution). As he began to leave the house, the woman then said to Hazrat "Huzur, I am your servant please accept my Salam!" Hazrat replied whilst leaving the house,

"Do not despair, I will find you on the day of qiyamat (resurrection), on that day I will find you!!"

I wish to say and illustrate that Allah blesses the one who is not only an Aalim but the one we call a Wali, Gauth, Khwajha, Qutb Aqtaab (titles and stations of sainthood).

Alhamdulillah Rabbil Aalameen, I desire to say that regardless of whatever anyone says I, Shahbaz (the speaker), say if someone is a Mu'min (believer) and is a Jahannami (inhabitant of hell) if he looks at Azhari Miyan, Allah will bless him with Jannat (paradise) and make him a Jannati (inhabitant of paradise).
